NanoTech Gaming Now Trading as NTGL

Completes Corporate Reorganization and Move to OTC Markets

LAS VEGAS, NV – May 21, 2015 – NanoTech Gaming \(OTCPINK: NTGL\), a Casino Gaming and Out of Home Game Developer and Manufacturer leveraging proprietary technology to deliver state-of-the-art products and services, announced today that it has completed the move to OTC Markets following the acquisition of High Velocity Enterprises, Inc. (HVEL) as part of an overall corporate reorganization. NTGL was spun out from the Gaming Labs division of NanoTech Entertainment (OTCPINK: NTEK) along the division’s IP portfolio and full gaming operations into the new company. FINRA has approved the name change and issued a new ticker symbol for NanoTech Gaming which trades under the symbol NTGL effective immediately.

NanoTech Gaming has retained Omnivance Advisors to handle shareholder and investor relations providing focused communications for the company’s existing shareholders as well as the investment community. The company is in the process of registering the shares that were previously issued as part of the acquisition of the intellectual property and assets.

Alan Stone, Chairman and CEO of NanoTech Gaming, stated “We are excited to complete this transition and look forward to working with our shareholders and investors under our new trading symbol NTGL.”

Aaron Hightower, Senior VP of Gaming Technology close by saying “We have incredibly exciting times ahead of us. I know that I speak for myself and the entire NanoTech Gaming team when I say that we are truly developing the Future of Gaming. We are very excited about the changing landscape of gaming and being at the very leading edge of designing and implementing technologies that will advance the gaming space in the coming years.”

About NanoTech Gaming

Headquartered in Las Vegas Nevada, the global center of the gaming industry, NanoTech Gaming is a revolutionary company that focuses on all aspects of the development of gaming products. NanoTech Gaming creates the world's most compelling gaming experiences by using patent-pending math models and non-traditional designs. NanoTech Gaming builds products for both the traditional players as well as a new class of gambler that is intelligent and informed offering the ability to realize life changing winnings while continuing to offer casinos exactly the house edge they need to operate their business. Based on extensive research of modern social and competitive games, NanoTech gaming machines allow players to choose exactly how they want to balance their skill and intelligence against the risk / reward model of the game.
