

NanoTech Gaming To Debut “CasinoKat” Skill-Based Game At G2E 2015

“CasinoKat” is a Casual Skill-Based Gaming machine designed for players who want to have fun!

LAS VEGAS, September 10, 2015

NanoTech Gaming (OTCPINK: NTGL), announces the upcoming landmark debut of “CasinoKat” at the Global Gaming Expo (G2E) at the Las Vegas Sands Convention Center, September 29th through October 1st.

“CasinoKat” is a fast-paced, fun, furry gambling machine with classic arcade maze-chase gameplay. Inspired by one of the world’s most recognizable video game for more than 30 years, players have the chance to relive the excitement of 80’s arcades with a modern presentation, and an opportunity to have their skill influence their chance to win real money.

“Visitors to this year’s G2E will have no doubt about NanoTech Gaming’s commitment to innovation, and game development expertise when it comes to skill-based and hybrid casino games,” said Stephen Riesenberger, Creative Director at NanoTech Gaming. “CasinoKat debuts in our 40” Deluxe Cocktail cabinet, an updated tribute to another arcade classic, but featuring an HD display running at 120Hz, a 4-way leaf-switch joystick, and ludicrously massive 18” subwoofer. Along with contemporary Electronic Dance Music (EDM) loops, players will see, hear, and feel the energy pumping out of the game!”

The game cabinet is designed by Las Vegas local Sunkist Graphics Inc. and features their latest ‘sunburst’ and ‘infinity’ LED lighting technology. Combined with the playful, colorful in-game graphics, Sunkist Graphics’ multicolored pulsing and cycling rainbow lights are certain to draw crowds at this year’s G2E.
